

Roll and core movement machine dedicated to the automatic interlocking of an entire parent roll production department. Specifically, it executes the interlocking of the winder, of the weighing stationing, of the waste-film grinder supply stationing, of the core and roll warehouse, of the primary slitter and of any ground transport shuttles.

Main characteristics:

- "Rapid" roll coupling system
- Completely guided material movements
- No roll rotation
- Automated movements

